Ricardus dei gratia Rex Anglie et Francie et Dominus Hibernie vicecomiti Surrey salutem. Precipimus tibi sicut plures tibi precepimus quod venire facias coram justiciariis nostis apud Westminster in octavus Sancte Richard by grace of God, King of England and France and Lord of Ireland, to the sheriff of Surrey, greetings. We direct you just as we usually direct you, that you will cause to come before our justices at Westminster on the octave of St

Hillary xii tam milites quam alios libros et legales homines de visneto de Mordon quorum quilibet habeat centum solidatas terre tenementorum vel redditus per annum ad minus per quos rei veritas Hilary, twelve, both knights and other free and lawful men from the neighbourhood of Morden of whom each has 100 shillings of land, tenements or annual rent, at least, by whom the truth of the matter melius sciri poterit et qui nec Abbatem Westminster nec Johannem Prat, Johannem Gerard senior, Johannem Gerard junior, Walter Potter et Henry Hegger aliqua affinitate attingunt ad may the better be known, and who neither the Abbot of Westminster, nor John Prat, John Gerard senior, John Gerard junior, Walter Potter and Henry Hegger, touch by any affinity, recognitum super sacrum suum si predicti Johannem Hervy, Richard Waterservant, potter, et Nicholas Waterservant, to examine upon their oaths, whether they all, with the aforesaid John Hervy, Richard Waterservant, potter, and Nicholas Waterservant, potter, de Estcheyham die Martis in septimania penticostis anno regni nostris sextodecimo vi et armis scilicet gladiis arcibus et sagittis inde Johannem Gyldene servientem ipsius Abbatis potter of East Cheam, on Tuesday in Whit week in the 16th year of our reign, with force and arms, that is with swords and bows and arrows, assaulted John Gyldene, the servant of the Abbot himself apud Morden insultum fecerint et ipsum verberaverunt et vulneraverunt et male tractaverunt per quod idem Abbatis servitium servientis suis predicti per magnum tempus at Morden, and beat and wounded and evilly handled the same, such that the same Abbot lost the service of his aforesaid servant for a great time, videlicet per sex septimanas extunc proxima sequerent amisit contra pacem nostram sicut idem Abbatis dicit vel non sicut predicti Johannus Prat, Johannus Gerard senior, Johannus Gerard junior, Walter et Henry dicunt that is for six weeks following thereafter, against our peace, just as the same Abbot says, or if not, just as the aforesaid John Prat, John Gerard senior, John Gerard junior, Walter and Henry say, quia tam predicti Johannus Prat, Johannus Gerard senior, Johannus Gerard junior, Walter et Henry quam predictus Abbas inter quos inde contentus est posuerunt se in juratum illam et because both the aforesaid John Prat, John Gerard senior, John Gerard junior, Walter and Henry, and the aforesaid Abbot, between whom whereof there is dispute, submit themselves to that jury. And habeas ibi nominas juratorum et hoc breve, Teste, W. Thirnyng apud Westminster, xxiv die Octobris, anno Regni Nostri vicesimo primo. have there the named jurors and this writ. Witness W. Thirnyng at Westminster, 24 October, in the twenty-first year of our reign.
