3 fine 8s respited? fealty	Whereas at the general court held here the Wednesday next after Michaelmas 2 Richard III the order was given to Thomas Adam, then bailiff at the same place, to seize and take into the lord's hand all and singular the tenements, messuages, tofts, gardens, lands, meadows, grazings [pasc'] and pastures [pastur'] which John Coweper of London, hurer [hewerer],* held of the lord at that day by roll of court at the lord's will lying within this lordship, or which any other person holds, to the use of the same John, both for waste made in buildings, woods and gardens, and especially for rents therefor in arrears for two years being unpaid. And meanwhile to come to answer the lord for issues and profits therefor as ordered. And now at this court the lord of his grace from the severe plaint of the aforesaid John and Elena his wife, re-grants all and singular the tenements, messuages, tofts, gardens, lands, meadows, grazings [pasc'] and pastures [pastur'] aforesaid to the aforementioned John and Elena, to hold to themselves and to John's heirs and assigns, of the lord by roll of court at the lord's will saving [the lord's] right etc. Rendering the lord in respect thereof yearly at the usual festivals the rent customs etc customary. And they give the lord for fine as appears in the heading. And they do fealty and seisin is delivered to them by the rod. And they are admitted tenants etc.
4	Sum 8s 2d. Affeerers: William Goldewyer, John Dunnyng, sworn.
