

m14	16641020

Morden [Mourdon] 1664	View of frankpledge with Court Baron of George Garth esq, lord of the manor aforesaid, held at the same place Thursday 20 October 1664 Charles II, by grace of God king of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, defender of the faith, etc, by Matthew Carleton esq steward at the same place.
Plaints	None.
Essoins	None.

Constable elected	Jonas Lowgee constable at the same place charged, appears and is sworn etc. And now at this court William Quarrington is elected into the office aforesaid for the coming year. And being present in court he is sworn etc.

Common fine 6s 8d paid	Thomas Cocks tithingman at the same place, charged, appears and is sworn etc. And he presents Common Fine payable at this day. And now at this court William Arthurbury is elected into the office aforesaid for the coming year. And being present in court he is sworn etc.

	Gustat Domini	Robertus Major Gustat Domini compuit et Junctus Et modo ad hanc dominum humphrey Mills Et iste iuratus est pro anno futuro et presentis in eam iurant.
Aletaster		Robert Major, aletaster at the same place, appears and is sworn etc. And now at this court Humphrey Mills is elected into the office aforesaid for the coming year. And being present in court he is sworn etc.
Parker at the same place		Robert Major, parker of the Common pound at the same place, appears and is sworn etc. And now at this court he continues in the office aforesaid for the coming year and is sworn etc.
Jury for the lord king with homage at the same place		John Franke, Edward Stiles, William Quarrington, Jonas Lowgee, Michael Croucher, Robert Major – sworn.            Edward Wharum, William Arthurbury, Hugh Dollett, Thomas Cocks, John Dollett, John White, Humphrey Mills – sworn. Who being sworn and charged of and upon various Articles concerning the court aforesaid say and present as follows.            The jurors aforesaid present in these English words following (namely) Qui iurant de onibus deo et suis iudicis Antichristi quibus comitandis firmant et iurant et signature Iurantes quod sententia in his Anglorum verbis sententia sunt.

Item wee present that Jonas Lowgee hath not suffered the Watercourse of the Common Sewer to runn as formerly it did and according to the presentment and paine sett at the last Court therof on the 13th of May 1664 wher he now paid to the Lord of the said Mannor And it is ordered that he doe the same by Christmas next on paine to forfeit to the Lord of the said Mannor if not done 5s.

Jonas Lowgee mercy 2s 6d paid	First, wee present that Jonas Lowgee hath not suffered the Watercourse of the Common Sewer to runn as formerly it did and according to the presentment and paine sett at the last Court. Therefore he is in mercy 2s 6d which he now paid to the Lord of the said Mannor. And it is ordered that he doe the same by Christmas next on paine to forfeit to the Lord of the said Mannor if not done 5s.
--	---

Item wee order that noe person or persons shall suffer his or their Cattell to goe and feede in the Lands of this Mannor before St James Day without a keeper nor after the first of March on paine of impounding their Cattell and to forfeit to the Lord of this Mannor for every Beast soe taken 1s.

Item wee order that if the Cattell of any other Mannor come and feede in the waste lands of this Mannor That they be taken and impounded And kept until they have given satisfaction to ye Lord of this Mannor.

Item wee present that John Dollett hath layd out his incroachment according to ye order of the last Court.

	Item wee order that noe person or persons shall suffer his or their Cattell to goe and feede in the Lands of this Mannor before St James Day without a keeper nor after the first of March on paine of impounding their Cattell and to forfeit to the Lord of the said Mannor for every Beast soe taken 1s.
	Item wee order that if the Cattell of any other Mannor come and feede in the waste lands of this Mannor That they be taken and impounded And kept until they have given satisfaction to ye Lord of this Mannor.
	Item wee present that John Dollett hath layd out his incroachment according to ye order of the last Court.

Item wee order that Hugh Souder, Thomas Warden, Edward Wharum and the widow Dumbrell senior doe cleane and scour their watercourse from Southwell Corner to Hoballs Bridge by Michaelmas next on paine to forfeite for every Rodd not done 6d. And wee order that John Franke, Edward Stile and William Quarrington doe certify the Steward and the Jury at the next Court what is left undone thereof at this Court.

Item wee order that John Bishopp or his Mother doe cleane and scour the watercourse leadeing from the Mersh downe to Mountaine gap by the first day of April next on paine to forfeite for every Rodd not done 6d.

Item wee order that the widow Harrison and William Quarrington doe cleane and scour their severall proportions of the watercourse leadeing downe from Stone Bridge to Olde Mourdon Stile by Midsumer day next on paine to forfeite for every Rodd not done 6d.

	Item wee order that John Dollett, Thomas Warden, Edward Wharum and the widow Dumbrell senior doe cleanse and scour their watercourse from Southwell Corner to Hoballs Bridge by Michaelmas next on paine to forfeit for every Rodd not done 6d. And wee order that John Franke, Edward Stile and William Quarrington doe certify the Steward and the Jury at the next Court what is left undone thereof at this Court.
	Item wee order that John Bishopp or his Mother doe cleanse and scour the watercourse leadeing from the Mersh downe to Mountaine gap by the first day of April next on paine to forfeite for every Rodd not done 6d.
	Item wee order that the widow Harrison and William Quarrington doe cleanse and scour their severall proportions of the watercourse leadeing downe from Stone Bridge to Olde Mourdon Stile by Midsumer day next on paine to forfeite for every Rodd not done 6d.

Item wee present that the Claypitt lyeing upon London High way is very daingerous to his Majesties Leige people passing that way and wee desire that the Lord of the said Mannor will please to Rayle the same agt the Highway.

Item wee order that Thomas Warden doe cleane and scour his ditch or watercourse from Michael Crouchers Common Meade to the end of Twiry Lane by Midsumer day next on paine of 6d a Rod if not done.

Item wee order that the widow Dumbrell doe cleane and scour her ditch agt her pightell against Bow Lane by Midsumer day next on paine of 6d a Rod if not done.

Item wee order that Thomas Warden doe Rayse the foote bridge leadeing from Hugh Dolleys to the Church by All hollan day next on paine to forfeit to the Lord of the said Mannor 5s.

Item wee order that Susan Harris widow and Michael Croucher do betweene them sett a Rayle upon the Pond side lyeing in the said Widow Harris her ground leadeing towards the Church by St Andrews day next on paine to forfeit if not done. 5s.

		Item wee present that the Claypitt lyeing upon London Highway is very daingerous to his Majesties Leige people passing that way and wee desire that the Lord of the said Mannor will please to Rayle the same agt the Highway.
		Item wee order that Thomas Warden doe cleane and scour his ditch or watercourse from Michael Crouchers Common Meade to the end of Twiry Lane by Midsumer day next on paine of 6d a Rod if not done.
		Item wee order that the widow Dumbrell doe cleane and scour her ditch agt her pightell against Bow Lane by Midsumer day next on paine of 6d a Rod if not done.
		Item wee order that Thomas Warden doe Rayse the foote bridge leadeing from Hugh Dolleys to the Church by All hollan day next on paine to forfeit to the Lord of the said Mannor 5s.
		Item wee order that Susan Harris widow and Michael Croucher do betweene them sett a Rayle upon the Pond side lyeing in the said Widow Harris her ground leadeing towards the Church by St Andrews day next on paine to forfeit if not done. 5s.

Modode for Baron

Now of the Court Baron

	Modo ad hanc Cour. Homag presentat qd Stephen Symonds qui tenet de domino hunc manerio      sibi et heredi suis unum tenementum et duas acres terrae x 19d per annam post et cum et post      hanc Cour. obiit inde seisit p. quod a dicit domino de Coleno p. ipsius et qd Stephen Symonds filius est      unus filii et propter hanc et modo si un' Hester Symonds dux matri et guardiani eius regnauit      miss et soluit domino Reliefe 19d.
Death Stephen Symonds Relief 19d paid	Now at this Court the Homage present that Stephen Symonds, who held of the lord of this manor to himself and his heirs one tenement and two acres of land by rent of 19d a year, after the last court and before this court died thereof seised, whereby there falls due to the lord for Relief 19d. And that Stephen Symonds, <sup>infant</sup> is son and next heir. And now in Court Hester Symonds widow, his mother and guardian acknowledges the premises and pays the lord for Relief 19d.
Obiit John   Letts Maria 2 Reliefs 4d paid	In modo ad hanc Cour. Homag presentat qd John Letts et Maria uxoris qui tenent libere      sibi et heredi don. unum tenementum et duas terras. x 2d per annam post et cum p. John Letts obiit et post      obiit sui et ante hanc Cour. qd Maria similiter obiit p. quatuor duas acres terrae p. Elizabeth Letts nra p. qd      et Maria dedit p. miss p. Elizabeth Letts filia eius ad ipsa usus et intentus monitione      decessat et dicitur hanc in dicto voluntate et legamento p. ipsius qd Maria et qd Elizabeth tunc p. ipsius huc      in Cour. cognovit p. miss et soluit quic p. dicto Reliefe 4d.
Death John   Letts Maria 2 Reliefs 4d paid	Likewise at this Court the Homage aforesaid present that John Letts and Maria his wife, who held freely to themselves and their heirs one tenement and certain land by rent of 2d a year, after the last court the aforesaid John died and after his death and before this court the aforesaid Maria likewise died, whereby there falls due to the lord for two Reliefs 4d. And that the aforesaid Maria gave the premises aforesaid to Elizabeth Letts her daughter to the use, behoof and intent mentioned, expressed and declared in the last will and testament of herself the aforesaid Maria. And the aforesaid Elizabeth being present here in Court acknowledges the premises and pays the lord for two Reliefs 4d.

Admission  John Higlond esq	Likewise, whereas at the Court held at the same place for the Manor aforesaid 21 October AD 1652 Thomas Style esq, who by copy of Court Roll of the Manor aforesaid held to himself and his heirs two messuages and certain customary lands held of the Manor aforesaid by four separate copies and heriotable, surrendered the premises aforesaid to the use, behoof and intent mentioned, expressed and declared in his last will and testament in writing. And also at the Court held at the same place for the Manor aforesaid 15 April AD 1658 it was found by the Homage at the same place [deletion] that the aforesaid Thomas Style, after the surrender aforesaid and before that court died (by whose death there fell due to the lord four heriots seized by the bailiff of the Manor aforesaid and answered upon composition of £8 paid to the lord of the Manor aforesaid) but before his death (namely) 29 November AD 1656 framed his testament in writing, whereby (among others) he gave and bequeathed in these English words following (namely): 'And I doe give my Coppiehold lands and howses in Mourdon in the County of Surry which is surrendered to the use of my will unto my sonne in Lawe John Higlond esq and his heirs upon trust and confidence and to this intent and purpose and my will is that the said John Higlond ...
---	--

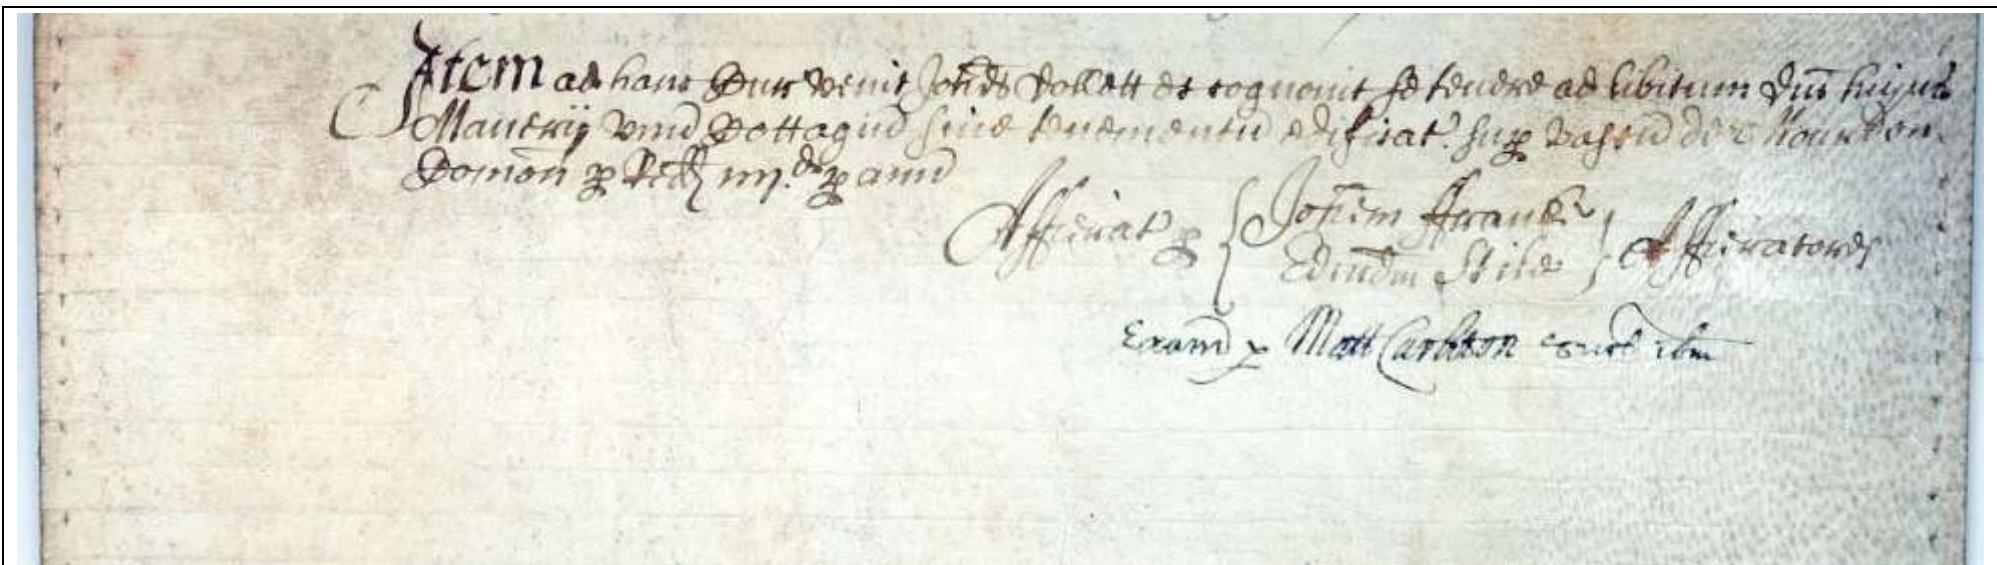

[continued overleaf]

20 m14v

John Highlord esq  fine £14	... shall sell the same to the best advantage for rayseing of portions for my said younger children and to be paied and disposed in such maner as by this my last will is expressed. $$$$ Whereupon at that Court the first proclamation was made if etc. And no one etc. Now at this Court upon the third proclamation comes the aforesaid John Highlord and humbly seeks of the lord of the Manor aforesaid to be admitted to the aforesaid Messuages and premises aforesaid with pertinents according to the tenor of the last will and testament of him the aforesaid Thomas Stile. To whom the lord of the Manor aforesaid by his steward aforesaid granted and delivered to him seisin thereof by the rod. To have and to hold to himself, the aforesaid John Highlord, his heirs and assigns forever, At the lord's will according to the custom of the Manor aforesaid by four separate copies, rents, heriots, customs and services in respect thereof formerly due and of right accustomed. And so he is Admitted tenant thereof, does fealty and gives the lord for fine in total for composition as appears in the Margin.
---	--

$$$$ The full will is The National Archives PROB 11/266/335

	Likewise at this Court comes John Dollett and acknowledges that he holds freely of the lord of this Manor one Cottage or tenement built upon the waste of Morden [Mourdon] Common by rent of 4d a year.
	Affeered by John Franke, Edmund Stile, Affeerers.
	Examined by Matthew Carleton steward at the same place.