]	m16	16850521
Denge And	four Print	Atur Dagon Brod towed Arming Sud many porto boloud norodon in from and for de good or of fun to many a min of my of a polo of a configuration to me of the source of the s
	Manor of	Court Baron of Richard Garth esq lord of the manor aforesaid held at Morden [Moredon] within the manor aforesaid
	Morden in	Thursday 21 May 1 James II AD 1685 before John Roland gent steward at the same place.
	County of Surrey
	Juspel Mart Juroideasab Jourtog	Plaints none.
]	Plaints	Plaints none.
]	Essoins	Essoins none.
	Amercements	Amercements none.
]	Homage	William Quarrinton, Hugh Dollatt, John Dollatt – sworn.

Omfranzelled Whistory los Witte Judymbou Jun Ofmout	N I from fuj is dous tools gedou fund and por too un de do to many birts un un and de son un and door to porto par A desperative un tool por grow soon four and por too elle oud floring un bes oun un four four and a son porto par a son and fullowed of the son tous and porto too elle oud floring un bes oun un four out of sol go su and tous and porto parts and tous and porto to a son and tous and tout and tout and
Surrender John Taylor William Quarrinton junior	At this Court comes John Taylor gent, a customary tenant of the manor aforesaid, and surrenders into the hand of the lord of the manor aforesaid, by the hand and acceptance of his steward aforesaid by the rod according to the custom of the manor aforesaid, all that one Close of land with pertinents containing by estimation two acres or more or less, customary and heriotable, called Martin Close lying in the parish of Morden in the County of Surrey aforesaid, near a certain Common called Martin Common, now in the Occupation of the aforesaid John Taylor to the use and behoof of William Quarrinton junior of Morden aforesaid in the County of Fine £3	Surrey aforesaid, yeoman, his heirs and assigns for ever. And now at this court comes the aforesaid William Quarrinton in his proper person and seeks to be admitted to the premises, to whom the lord by his steward aforesaid grants seisin by the rod, to have and to hold the close aforesaid with its pertinents to the aforesaid William Quarrinton, his heirs and assigns forever, at the lord's will according to the custom of the manor aforesaid by rent, services and customs formerly due and of right accustomed. And he gives the lord for fine just as appears in the margin. And he does fealty. And he is admitted tenant thereof.

Dunftie Brot	Ad pono try tourpour 9 to plounize allo guesd us tucked by du build your windy bound only is allow of the big wound in the point of the guesd wind to be plouning to be guesd wind build be been to be been to be allowed build of the big wound be guesd build by be been to be be
Admission	At this court it is found by the homage that Reginald Bucknoll who held of the lord of this Manor to himself and his heirs one
Richard	customary cottage with pertinents situate and being in the parish of Morden [Moredon] in the county of Surrey aforesaid, now in the Bucknoll	occupation of William Bridger, since the last and before this court in a weak state, thereof died seised (whence there falls due to the infant	lord for heriot the best ox of the same Reginald) at the time of his death according to the custom of the manor aforesaid. And that
For fine £3	Richard Bucknoll is the youngest [natu minimus] son and nearest heir of the same Reginald according to the custom of the manor aforesaid and underage (namely) aged seven years or thereabouts. And at the same court comes Sara Bucknoll widow, mother of the heriot 2s	aforesaid Richard Bucknoll and seeks that the same Richard Bucknoll be admitted to the cottage aforesaid with pertinents by the 6d[?]	same Sara Bucknoll as his nearest kin [amicum]. To whom the lord by his steward aforesaid grants seisin thereof by the rod to hold to himself and his heirs at the lord's will according to the custom of the manor aforesaid by rent, customs and services in respect thereof formerly due and of right accustomed. And she gives the lord for fine just as appears in the margin. And she pays the lord by composition for the aforesaid heriot being one bed [lecto] two shillings and sixpence. And is admitted tenant thereof, but his fealty is respited until etc. And afterwards at this court custody of the body of the aforesaid Richard Bucknoll as well as the cottage aforesaid with pertinents by the court is committed to the aforementioned Sara Bucknoll during the minority of the aforesaid Richard Bucknoll under the condition only that the said Sara Bucknoll keeps the cottage aforesaid with pertinents in good and sufficient repair and makes no waste in the same during the minority of the aforementioned Richard Bucknoll. And that she render account of the profits of the cottage aforesaid with pertinents to the same Richard Bucknoll when he comes of age.
	torme and provide the same relation and the same relation and the same of age.

Dayfingsblod	NI Primo fur foundation of a boundant of the solution of a solution in four and fur for the found for the solution of the solu
Surrender Sara Style	At this court it is found by the homage that Sara Style of Mitcham in the county of Surrey aforesaid, spinster, a customary tenant of this manor, since the last court and before this court, namely 19 December AD 1681, 33 Charles II, late king of England etc,
William Vaal	according to the custom of this manor and out of court surrendered into the hand of the lord of this manor by the acceptance of John Taylor gent and John Dollett, two of the customary tenants of this manor, all that her two customary messuages or tenements, orchards, gardens, curtilages, outbuildings, built upon and built over with certain customary lands belonging, situate, lying and being in the parish of Morden [Moredon] in the county of Surrey aforesaid and then in the several occupations of the said Sara Style, Susanne Dwyte widow, and Thomas Bercar ' [ie Shepherd] or their assigns, to the use and behoof of Richard Vaal of Mitcham aforesaid in the county aforesaid, collar-maker, his heirs and assigns for ever. The which tenements and premises with pertinents are held of the lord of this manor by four separate copies of roll of court of the same manor and separate heriots just as by roll of court of that manor is fully apparent, and at the same court comes the aforesaid Richard Vaal and seeks admittance to the premises aforesaid. To whom the lord by his steward aforesaid grants seisin thereof by the rod, to have and to hold the tenements and premises aforesaid with pertinents to the aforementioned Richard Vaal and his heirs for ever at the lord's will according to the custom of the manor aforesaid by separate copies of court roll of the manor aforesaid as previously, and for separate rents, heriots, customs and services in
For fine £14	respect thereof formerly due and of right accustomed. And he is admitted tenant thereof. And he does fealty. And he gives the lord for fine in total by composition just as appears in the margin.

Je om found gut floub a) filse oleman e ant o store fur for of agle gut to hit fumo want bound oil for Domo our futo may flouf un be more a hig more the store bus son with a more fuel for bud un or any buf go world a or bus on four In fab y boor a hypore will be guar our blesson flouf for any for our wy word but of the store and the day to be for fur hod as where a store or son the store of the son the son of the son of the son our for the son of the form of the son o Likewise the homage presents that since the last and before this court John Taylor, (who of the lord of this manor holds to himself and his heirs one customary close of land called Martin Close lying in the parish of Morden [Moredon] within the manor aforesaid) did the lord of this manor transgression by felling without licence of the same lord eight timber trees (namely) oaks and elms in the Close aforesaid lately growing. Upon which for the transgression aforesaid the same John Taylor is amerced by the court at two shillings and sixpence.
Jose of subout of fils of low on a month of the your of fishing leve in within or or or by subour or bour four bour to the gain of a subour on the or of and subour or a subour or and four of the gain of the gai Likewise they present that since the last and before this ^{court} namely 1 February AD 1681, ^{†††††} Richard Vaal, who of the lord of this manor holds to himself and his heirs one customary tenement with land thereto belonging, then and now in the occupation of Thomas War', situate, lying and being in the parish of Morden [Moredon] within the manor aforesaid, did the lord of this manor transgression by felling without licence of the same lord ten elms in and upon the land aforesaid lately growing. Upon which for the transgression aforesaid the same Richard Vaal is amerced by the court at sixpence.

^{†††††} Under the old calendar the year ended on 25 March, so this would be 1682 under the new chronology.