

Wandle Fortnight at Merton Heritage Centre

9 – 23 September (Displays)

The River Wandle : Did You Know...?

This small-scale exhibition will reveal some unusual facts about the River Wandle and its surroundings, from ancient settlements and artistic connections, to famous residents and aspects of natural history.

A Thing of Beauty : Images of the Wandle from the Merton Heritage collection.

This exhibition will be accompanied by extracts from the reminiscences of local people.

23 September, 2 – 4pm (History talk)

“A River Runs Through It: The River Wandle and its links to local heritage.”

Of key importance to the history of Merton, the River Wandle was once one of the most heavily worked waterways in the world. This illustrated talk will look at the significance of the river and key sites along its course.
