

Boy in the Blitz.

This illustrated talk by Heritage Officer, Sarah Gould, features readings from the 1940 diary of Tooting resident, Colin Perry.

Written from the perspective of an 18 year old, this unique record captures the spirit of wartime London, from rationing and night raids, to the courage and determination of the city's population.

Tuesday 19 June, 10.30 – 12.00

West Barnes Library,
Station Road, New Malden

Admission FREE.

For more information: Tel.02085453239