

The Grandad Tapes.

During his 90 years, Bill Eacott endured poverty, escaped a near death incident, fought for his country in two world wars and served London Transport for over four decades. He was also active in politics and committed to supporting workers' rights.

Discover more about this fascinating resident of St. Helier estate from this illustrated talk based on Bill's reminiscences.

Tuesday 19 February, 10.30 – 12.00
West Barnes Library,
Station Road, New Malden

Admission FREE.

For more information: Tel.02085453239