

Tally-ho! Coach travel and its heyday.

The streets around Merton once resounded to the sound of horses' hooves and carriage wheels. Locally run coach firms played an important part in transporting people around Surrey and the Capital, both for work and leisure.

Discover more about the golden age of coach travel at this talk by Michael Norman-Smith of Merton U3A.

Tuesday 15 October, 10.30am – 12 noon.

West Barnes Library,

Station Road, New Malden. KT3 6JF

Admission FREE.

Tel.020 8545 3239