	Morden	Court leet [curia legalis] of William Porter tenant of the aforesaid manor for a term of years by grant of John abbot of the monastery of blessed Peter Westminster held at the same place Wednesday 3 October 7 Henry VIII.
1	homage amercement 16d	The homage of this court, namely John Holt, Richard Cossyn, John Bele, John Judde, Thomas Brewse, each of them sworn, say upon their oath that John Wilyams, <sup>4d</sup> Thomas Wylson, <sup>4d</sup> Richard Playstowe, <sup>4d</sup> and John Wether, <sup>4d</sup> owe suit of court and have defaulted. Therefore they are severally in mercy.
2	penalty 3s 4d	Likewise they say that Peter Goodfelde, tenant of the land of Barkersland, forfeits 3s 4d because he has not scoured 4 perches of ditch in Monkeslane as in the last leet he was ordered.
3	penalty 5s	Likewise they say that John Goldwyre has not yet scoured his ditch, namely 6 perches towards [ erga ] Swanesland as he was ordered. Therefore he forfeits 5s for penalty imposed on him at the last leet.

4	penalty 3s 4d	Likewise they say that John Wether has not yet repaired his defective tenement called Goldwyers fully but he has begun. Therefore he forfeits 3s 4d of the penalty imposed on him at the last leet. And a new day is given to him to fully repair before next Easter under penalty of 12s.
5	admission fine 40s Goodfelde heriot nothing because he had no animals remain	At this court the lord by his steward grants to Peter Goodfeld all the lands and tenements specified in the court roll to have to himself and his heirs at the lord's will according to the custom of the manor for rent in respect thereof previously due and accustomed. And for making such title in respect thereof he gives the lord for fine as appears in the heading. And he does fealty. And so he is admitted tenant thereof. And the order is given to repair his tenement before the next court under penalty of 20s.
6	claim	Likewise he seeks admittance to another two acres of land late John Barker of which no surrender in respect thereof was made. And respited because Thomas Brewse claimed he will be given his land to be held freely of the lord.
7		Affeerers: John Holt, John Judd.
