

m11	16280423
 Manor of Morden View of frankpledge with Court Baron of Richard Garthe esq, lord of the manor aforesaid, held at Morden within that manor 23 April 1628, 4 Charles I, by grace of God king of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, defender of the faith etc, in the presence of William Langhorne gent, steward at the same place.
 Essoin of Anna Greenewell widow
Essoin	Ann Greenewell widow
 Jury for the lord king
Jury for the lord king	John Bishoppe, Thomas Heath, William Batts, Laurence Spicer – sworn. Nicholas Dumbrell, James Northe, Henry Thunderman, Robert Stephens – sworn. Walter Blacke, Edward Keble, George Stiles, Richard North – sworn. Henry Stevenson, William Stephens, Roger Thomalyn, Adam Etherton – sworn.

	Ordinance for Richard Crane At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that Richard Crane cleanse the ditch between the bridge called Stonebridge and a certain gate called Old Mordon Gate and a pightle of Richard North as far as the Common meadow and the ditch between the meadow called Hobaldes Meade and the meadow called Hawkes Meade before the feast of St Bartholomew the apostle next under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each perch ^{thereof} then not done 12d.
	Ordinance for Edward Tracye At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that Edward Tracye cleanse the ditch between the close called Newbery Close and certain land called Parkelands before the feast of St Bartholomew the apostle next under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each perch ^{thereof} then not done 12d.
	Ordinance for John Bishophe At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that John Bishophe cleanse the ditch between the bridge called Stonebridge and the common called Sutton Common before the feast of St Bartholomew the apostle next under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each perch ^{thereof} then not done 12d.

Ordinance for Richard Crane	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that Richard Crane cleanse the ditch between the bridge called Stonebridge and the common called Sutton Common before the feast of St Bartholomew the apostle next under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each perch ^{thereof} then not done 12d.

William Stephens for keeping an Inmate	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that William Stephens has kept with him in his dwelling-house Henry Thunderman for the space of twelve months. Therefore he forfeits to the lord for each month thereof ten shillings – in total it amounts to £6.

Richard Garth for building two cottages	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that Richard Garth esq has built 2 new cottages upon the lord's waste and has not put four acres of land of free and hereditary occupation with each of the cottages according to the form of the statute in such cases recently enacted and provided. Therefore he forfeits to the lord for each of the cottages ten pounds – in total it amounts to £20.

 Edward Keble	 At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that Edward Keble has built a new cottage and has not put four acres of land of free and hereditable occupation with the same according to the form of the statute in such cases recently enacted and provided. Therefore he forfeits £10.
 George Stiles for continuing a cottage	 At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that George Stiles has continued to keep one newly-built cottage for one month and has not in respect thereof put [deletion] four acres of land of free and hereditable occupation with the same according to the form of the statute in such cases recently enacted and provided. Therefore he forfeits to the lord £10.
 John Mager	 At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that John Mager put and kept upon the Common a certain gelding being mangy, in English, 'beinge Mangye' [deletion]. Therefore he forfeits to the lord 10s.

Ordinance for keeping alien sheep upon the Common	At this court it is ordained that no parishioner of Morden keeps any sheep of any person not being of the same parish in winter upon any Commons within the parish aforesaid under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each sheep 6d.

Ordinance for ringing pigs	At this court it is ordained that every parishioner of the parish of Morden ring and yoke all their pigs from the feast of Quadragesima, ... [continued overleaf]

m11v

	... in English called 'Shrovetide', until Michaelmas annually under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each pig so unringed and unyoked 4d.

George Stiles presented for keeping geese upon the Common	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present upon their oath that George Stiles keeps his geese upon the Common against the form of the ordinance made in respect thereof. Therefore he forfeits to the lord 12d.
Nicholas Dumbrell for the same	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid the jury say and present Nicholas Dumbrell for the same. Therefore he forfeits to the lord 12d.

Ordinance for keeping cattle without a keeper	At this court it is ordained that no person keeps any cattle in a certain lane called Bowe Lane without a keeper under penalty of forfeiting to the lord for each beast 4d.

Ordinance for Robert Stephens for selling ale	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that Robert Stephens is not to sell any ale without licence except for such ale as is now in his house under penalty of forfeiting to the lord 10s.

Ordinance for William Stephens for selling ale	At the view of frankpledge aforesaid it is ordained that William Stephens will provide himself with ale to the value of six shillings for each, in English, 'barrell' and that he is not to sell any ale except according to the price fixed in the statute under penalty of forfeiting the penalty mentioned in the statute.

Ordinance for maintaining gates at common meadow	At this court it is ordained that any person who has any meadow in the Common meadow according to their individual and respective size at their own charge before 6 May next ^{ought} to make and provide one gate to the said meadow under penalty of forfeiting to the lord according to the proportion of twelve pence for each acre thereof towards which they are answerable, the lord will give any timber for the same.

Now of the court

Homage	Edward Bedle sworn, John Hampton in right of his wife sworn

Licence to let for John Hampton Fine for having this licence	At this court the lord by his steward aforesaid grants to John Hampton, his heirs and assigns, licence to let at farm to any person or to the executors, administrators and assigns of any person, one close called Martyn Close, with pertinents lying and being within the manor aforesaid and held of the same manor, from Michaelmas last past until the full end^{and} term of thirty years from now next following and fully complete and finished or from any other day until the end of any other term within the term aforesaid, saving only to the lord of the manor aforesaid, his heirs and assigns, all and singular the heriots, reliefs, customs and services in respect thereof due and of right accustomed. And he gives the lord for fine for so having this licence in respect thereof just as appears in the heading.

Licence to fell trees for Edward Bedle for repairs ex'l	At this court the lord by his steward aforesaid grants to Edward Bedle, one of the customary tenants of this manor aforesaid by assignment of the lord, licence to fell trees for the repair of a certain customary tenement of the same Edward Bedle.

	By me Langhorne steward [British Library Add Ch 56047 follows]