* WAM 27285 adds the additional information "to aid the mowing of the demesne meadows". From 1288 this entry is replaced by a payment of 2s 8d for "a certain customary payment which is called medsilver".

† At the end of the 13th century, various small plots of land, some with cottages, were surrendered by customary tenants at the manorial courts to the use of various individuals who paid the odd ½d or 1d increment of rent to the Abbey, mostly at Michaelmas. (Court Rolls WAM 27384-90). The Extent of 1312(CUL Kk5.29, 42v-43) lists them under the heading of Rent increments. Some may well represent the settlement in Central Road.
