* The top of this membrane is very dirty and difficult to read. The figure of 19s 7d given here is calculated by deducting the sum of the other entries from the total income shown. The previous account – WAM 27282 – had an outstanding balance of 19s 6¼d owed to the reeve, of which 5s was excused, leaving 14s 6¼d owed to him. This would normally be entered as a surplus in the following account, not as arrears owed by the reeve.

† Possessions of thieves were forfeited to the lord – Dr Mark Page – personal correspondence 27/7/05. [see also Profits of the Court below]

‡‡ Morden Parish church is dedicated to St Laurence. This is assumed to have been the Laurence martyred at Rome in 258, whose feast day is 10 August. However, some suggest that the church was originally dedicated to St Laurence of Canterbury, the companion and successor of St Augustine, with a feast day on 3 February.

††† This account ran from June to June, and the harvest would have been in the August, just 2 months into the accounting year. It would therefore appear that the cheese-making season referred to in this account ran from May to September 1281, much of which was before the beginning of this accounting year.
