Sum 26s 4d.

* This probably relates to the hiring out of manorial ploughs, rather than commutation of labour services, which are covered in the next paragraph.

† This probably refers to disease; cf WAM 27300, where an ox is slaughtered to provide meat for a harvest boonwork 'because weak and having falling disease [qz debil et h'bint morbu' cadutu]' (caditio: to fall, collapse; gutta cadiva: epilepsy – Latham). On this occasion the meat is not eaten.

‡ According to the stock account on the dorse of the roll, 1 calf and 2 goslings went as tithe, from the 9 calves and 28 goslings of this year's issue. As rector, the Abbey was entitled to the greater tithes, but the lesser tithes were payable to the vicar. Did the vicar return the ½d as there were only 9 calves of issue, so the 1 given was more than a tenth?

Debit of the account

The same is charged for 16s 8¼d for various things charged, disallowed and sold at the audit.§ Sum 16s 8¼d.
